

WARTBURG GETS "NEW DEAL" FOR STUDENT BODY

Completely Revised Faculty-Student Government O. K.'d

Wartburg student government has undergone a complete and thorough revision with the adoption of a new constitution by the student body and approved by the faculty. Government will be administered by two groups, the Wartburg student senate and the Faculty-Student council.

Purpose of the student senate is to provide a democratic solution of student problems and to promote a closer relationship between the students and faculty. Duties of the senate will be to discuss student problems, sponsor homes coming in cooperation with the governing committee, assist in supervising student activities, exclusive of athletics, debate, band, and choir; to select six cheer leaders at the beginning of each school year; audit the books of the organizations at the end of each semester; and to make recommendations in regard to the sponsorship of different campus activities.

The faculty-student council will act as a consulting body and will consist of a faculty chairman, three faculty members, and three student members. Purpose will be to supervise, correlate, and direct the activities of the faculty-student organizations, exclusive of athletics committee, artists series committee, student publications, and sports activities committee, and the board of club committee. The aforementioned groups consist of student and faculty members, with a faculty majority in every case.

Mr. Schumacher, student president, explained to the student body that the constitution may not be the "best" as it stands, but that "the best we can get" at the present time.

BRaulick HEADS DRAMATICS CLUB

Dean Neumann Chosen for Advisor; Group Approves Constitution.

Paulus Braulick was elected president of the Wartburg Players for the ensuing year at a special meeting Tuesday evening, May 14. He succeeds E. J. Cornish who has been president since last December. Paulus will be a senior next year, and qualifies for the position with three years of experience in dramatics. During these three years he has portrayed a number of character parts.

The club also chose Dean Neumann as their faculty advisor for the coming year. He will direct all the productions which the club will present next year together with his regular duties as faculty advisor.

The constitution committee presented to the club the new constitution. It is final form. The club had previously approved the constitution section by section and it was now accepted as the official constitutional document of the club.

The meeting was closed with the new president entertaining the motion for adjournment.

The Wartburg Players held a very short meeting Monday evening, May 13 for the purpose of reuniting the members with their various duties as committee workers for the play, "The Pouter Pigeon" to be presented Monday evening, June 3.

Reunions Include Class of 1885

Perhaps one of the most interesting features of Alumni Day on June 4 will be the special class reunions that are being planned.

POUTER PIGEON

"The Pouter Pigeon," a three-act comedy which will have been presented by the Wartburg Players on Monday, May 20, has been postponed until June 3, when it will be featured on the commencement week program. The play, written by Beulah Lyons, promises to offer several hours of good entertainment. It will be presented in the Wartburg auditorium.

SENIOR DAY DRAWS FROM 250 MILES AWAY

H. S. Students See College in Action; Knights Drub Penn.

Visitors from as far away as 250 miles were guests of the college, Wednesday May 8, high school senior day. The day's program was again especially arranged to show "a college in action." The entire forenoon class schedule was maintained but arrangements were made for guests to visit any class that they wished to see in action. Special programs featuring various campus organizations were given in the college auditorium. Among the features were appearances of the choir and the band.

The baseball game in the afternoon against Penn resulted in a 5 to 2 victory for the Knights. Penn losing the visitors to the Knights. The tennis matches with Penn had to be cancelled on account of wet ground.

Open house during the day provided opportunity to visit all buildings and to view numerous exhibits and demonstrations. The home economics department held a special reception for students and guests during the afternoon. The broad expanses of green and the stately elms of north campus served as the setting for the picnic supper which climaxed the day's activities.

Members of the classes of 1885, 1890, 1895, 1900, 1905, 1910, 1915, 1920, 1925, 1930 and 1935 are being rallied by a class chairman appointed for that purpose. No members of the class of 1875 are living and there was no graduating class in 1860 in any of the merged colleges.

Class meetings will be held between 8:00 and 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 4, in Luther hall.

Primary elections for the editor and business manager of the 1941 Fortress and members to the student senate will be held Monday, May 20, in Luther hall.

A list of candidates for the Fortress positions was submitted to the student body at Friday's convocation, opened by the year staff.

Additional nominations were made from the floor to make the list of Fortress candidates for Monday's primaries as follows:

For editor: Janice Black, Edwin Gurtman, Dorothy Krueger, Emma Storch, Richard Wall, William Wehrmacher, Esther Weiss and Elizabeth Wiedersanders.

For business manager: Elmer Henrichs, Ruth Mirand, Luther Meyer, Edwin Obenauer, Vernon Stumpke.

From each of the above two lists of candidates the two receiving the most votes will compose the ticket in the final elections.

Students "Fly Out" To Gun Club May 16

After two mornings of general visiting the Wartburg student body went on its annual spring outing to the Waverly gun club Thursday, May 16.

A full day's entertainment consisted of softball, volleyball, and horseshoe games, field events as well as boat riding gave everybody ample opportunity to enjoy himself. After sufficient sunbathing the students enjoyed a theater party to climax the day's outing.

Following tradition the entertainment for the day was provided by the sophomore class.

W. A. A. LOSERS GREAT WINNERS

During the year, the W. A. A. has been divided into two groups for the purpose of competition in the earning of points. The group earning the most points was to be entertained by the other group.

The party is being planned for May 21, when the winning side, whose captain is Eleanor Gross, will be entertained by the losers, whose captain is Rachel Brownson.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET CIRCUS

Cornish Trustmaster as 95 Attend; Circus Theme of Dinner.

With the pleasing and genial E. J. Cornish, commonly known as "Big Top" in the center, serving as toastmaster, the annual formal junior-senior banquet was held at the Legion hall in Waverly on Friday, May 17, with approximately 95 juniors, seniors and guests.

Following the novel idea of a "Circus", the room was decorated to represent a circus ground with a "Big Top" in the center. The tables were decorated with little merry-go-rounds as centerpieces and with animals and clowns as side pieces. A noisy but efficient group of waiters entered the scene as pup and animal characters calling out in familiar nasal tones, "Peanuts! Ice cold pop!"

The program presented was as follows:

Invocation, President E. J. Braulick.

Three Rings, Reverend A. G. Ralsick, Realdon.

Free Act, Chire Wells, Layvonne Rowray.

Pulling Stakes, Eleanor Gross, president senior class.

Music recordings with circus themes were played between courses.

Committees in charge of the banquet were as follows: Program committee, Obenauer, chairman, Heist, Brandt, Gies and Sauder; Business, Huth, chairman; Entertainment, Walz, Dreyer and Wagner; Location, Ihlen, chairman; Black, Andersen, Meyer and Meyer; Menu, committee, Wiedersanders, chairman, Henrichs and Schock; decoration committee, Heist, chair, Cornish, Ralsick, Eubanks and Braulick.

LET DEMOCRACY REIGN!

Now that two of the spring elections are over, and the new primary system has been inaugurated and tested, let us glance back over the past two weeks and note what effect the new system had on the elections. In general I think we must agree that the new system has been much more democratic. It was the student body and not the student council who selected the nominees for student body president. Every student was forced to recognize that fact and was well aware that the candidates in the final election were the choice of the majority. Hence it naturally followed that there was no "griping" from any source on the list of candidates.

In the Trumpet elections, every question of eligibility was referred directly to the student body who were also given an opportunity to make additional nominations to the list of candidates submitted by the Trumpet staff. Here again the candidates in the finals were the choice of the majority of the students.

All the elections to date have been practically devoid of campaigning of any sort. All of which makes for a better school spirit and a more closely united student body.

Surely with such a united spirit present among the students, the successful candidates will more than ever put forth every effort to be worthy of their trust.

SO HIGH . . . THE MARK!

The annual shift in the personnel of all college organizations has brought a considerable change to the Trumpet masthead. Departing seniors and two year teachers have left a difficult mark for the new staff to shoot at. It is with genuine regret that we take leave of them.

Particularly to be regretted is the fact that her increased load of studies for the coming year made it impossible for Miss Wiedersanders to accept the editorship which could have been hers had she but desired it. The Trumpet issues published under her guiding hand this spring have been classics.

Therefore the new editor asks your pardon if the editorial hand should tremble a bit as it catches the torch thrown to him. His duty it is, indeed, to hold the torch of good journalism aloft. But . . . it has been held so high . . . Be it his pledge and responsibility to always strive to keep it there!

WHAT HAVE YOU LEARNED?

We have by now recovered from another Outfly. All of us have added many treasures to our store of college day memories. For a moment, now, let us stop and think what has happened to us and for us since we met on the banks of the Cedar for our first Outfly of the 1939-40 school year. Remember that first Outfly? Everybody tried to forget his homesickness by having a good time; but we were all still pretty much strangers to each other. Most of us were still "at sea", and not yet readjusted to the routine of school work.

What a difference the winter has made. This time we knew what was going on and were ready for it. All of us are now familiar with the splendid tradition of Outfly which Wartburg students have enjoyed for over 50 years. This time the Freshmen did not have to worry about finding those elusive Outfly wings. Everyone felt more at ease and more at peace with the world.

This second big picnic of the year should make us think how much we all have learned and how many new friends and acquaintances we have made since the first Outfly of this year, way back on September 13, 1939.

IN APPRECIATION

The Wartburg student body wishes to express its appreciation to Waverly Theater for its cooperation in making our Outfly Day complete.

W. A. A. AWARDS

Sweaters To Be Given
 For First Time.

Three major awards, five secondary awards, and four minor awards will be presented by the W. A. A. on Award Day, June 4.

These awards are based on the point system. By this system, each person is given so many points of participation in some athletic activity, group or individual. The points may be added from year to year, as long as the person is a member of the organization.

There are three kinds of awards, based on the number of points earned. For 500 points, a numeral is given; for 600 points, a letter is given; and for 1000 points a major award, a sweater, is being given this year.

This is the first year that any annual award has ever been awarded. Those who have earned the points and will receive the major award are: Eleanor Gross, Vivian Gluck and Lorna Folkerts.

Those who have earned 500 points and will receive a letter are: Irma Christophel, Florence Frahm, Anita Cornick, Magdalene Heitke, and Marjorie Beardon.

Those who will receive 300 points and will receive a letter are: Lois Harstad, Joyce Marten, Rachel Brownson and Vivian L. Rubin.

Hock, Bergmann Elected To Top Trumpet Posts

Freshman Editor,
Chosen; First
at Wartburg.

Last Wednesday's final election revealed that Llewellyn Hock and Lester Bergmann were the choice of the student body for the positions of editor and business manager of the Trumpet respectively. For the first time in Wartburg's history, a freshman has been elected to the editorship of the Trumpet. Mr. Hock's newly appointed editorial staff has already assumed its duties.

Llewellyn Hock, the new editor, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hock of Strawberry Point, Iowa. Llewellyn attended the Strawberry Point high school and graduated with the class of 1935. He attended the Iowa State Teachers college at Cedar Falls for a 3-month term during the winter of 1936-1937. Before coming to college, Llewellyn taught a rural school for two years.

During the past year Llewellyn has been a very active member of the Trumpet editorial staff. He has served as reporter since last September, was editor of this year's Freshman Issue, and acted as co-editor and associate editor of the last two issues respectively.

Llewellyn is an active member of the Debate club and the Luther League. Besides his activities on the campus, he teaches a Sunday school class at St. Paul's church. He is a freshman this year and is pursuing a pre-theological course.

Lester Bergmann, the new business manager, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Bergmann of Tripoli, Ia. He attended the Fredricka high school and graduated with the class of 1937. Lester has served as reporter on the Trumpet staff for three semesters and has been advertising manager during the last semester of this school year.

Lester has been a member of the football squad for the past two years and is a member of the Dramatics club. Last year he was on the B squad in basketball and a member of the track team.

The editor and business manager have been elected, for the first time, by means of the new direct primary election system. Nominees selected by the Trumpet staff itself and those nominees additionally submitted by the student body during a convocation period were voted on in the primary election on Monday. On Wednesday, students were given a chance to vote for one of the two highest candidates for each of the positions. The new editor and business manager are, consequently, the choice of the majority of the student body.

Siefkes, Oltrogge, Professors Speak to Student Body.

The president of the Iowa District of the American Lutheran church, Rev. Siefkes of Monona, Iowa, spoke in convocation on Tuesday, May 7, bringing to the students' attention their aim and purpose here in this world.

"There is no greater work anywhere in the world than in the kingdom of Jesus Christ," said the speaker. "Everything good you do should be a contribution to this particular end."

It is important that we as church members set a good example for the world if we do not live in the spirit of Christ, how can we invite anyone to join us in the church?

In the Senior Day convocation Tuesday, May 8, Dean G. J. Neumann gave an address on "Faith," comparing it to the work which carries us on the river of time.

"If the boat is to reach its destination," said Dean Neumann, "each man must work. The faith that saves is the faith in action." The speaker pointed out that we should seek our destination not because we wish primarily to be saved, but because we hear God calling us.

Rev. V. C. Oltrogge
Rev. V. C. Oltrogge of Waverly spoke in convocation Monday, May 12, basing his remarks on the "God said," "God remembered," and "God blessed" found in the story of Noah.

"Subjective reading of the Bible," said Rev. Oltrogge, "is a curse of today." He pointed out that we must accept what the Bible says as God's word, and rejoice what He wants us to do.

Just as in the case of Noah, if we do what God says, He will remember us. "In obligation to us, then," said the speaker, "God will bless."

Tuesday, May 7—Did help vote candidates for student proxy today by indulging in my right of suffrage to the fullest extent. However, was severely limited in my indulging since my desk manager did earnestly request my signature. But was immensely gratified to find no dotted line.

Wednesday, May 8—Did go about cleaning my room in a definitely aggravated manner this a.m. as I could not bear to think that very certain high school senior was not attending our Senior Day. Inasmuch as I could not be helped, did proceed to put aside all dirty thoughts and intentions and found that the other seniors were very nice people too.

Thursday, May 9—The candidates being definitely less numerous did have less trouble in deciding whom to vote for than on the previous occasion. So being a bit weary, made no attempt to evade signing up, made my little X for the final election for student proxy, and wandered down to listen to Prof. Ottersberg's interesting lecture and rhythmic steps.

When the new hymnal of the Evangelical and Reformed Church comes off the press next fall, it will contain four new hymns the texts of which were written by Doctor G. J. Neumann, Dean of Wartburg college, Waverly, Iowa. Of the new hymns which will appear in this hymnal, Dean Neumann has contributed more than any other poet. His contributions include two Good Friday hymns, an Ash Wednesday hymn, and a hymn on the healing ministry of our Lord. All the new hymns have hymn tunes written expressly for them by eminent composers. More than 20 composers submitted tunes for one of Doctor Neumann's Good Friday hymns, "Now All is Still." The setting composed by Dr. Karl P. Horning was adjudged the best. This hymn drew the attention of more composers than any other text.

Those who have read the Lutheran Standard for a number of years will remember that for five consecutive years (1932 to 1936) a hymn for each Sunday in the church year was published from the pen of Dean Neumann. The hymn, "Now All is Still" appeared in the issue for March 19, 1932. The Ash Wednesday hymn, "Again, O Lord and Savior" which the new hymnal of the Evangelical and Reformed Church will contain was published in the issue for Feb. 6, 1932. In order to secure new hymnic verse, the committee in charge of the preparation of this new hymnal wrote to many sources, including religious journals, poetry magazines, and literary groups in this and other countries. They directed a letter to the Lutheran Standard as a result of which they got into touch with Dean Neumann and found four of his hymns suitable for their forthcoming publication, which has been in preparation for five years.

on the most exciting student cogger ever since a.m. about my freshman year was spent much by my discomfited. This evening did spot Satan definitely behind me, Friday night or not and put the finishing touches on old faithful, my term paper.

Saturday, May 11—After definitely subduing Sir Roommate at the stakes with a horseshoe to settle the issue of good breakfast, wandered listlessly hither and yon for the balance of the day. This afternoon found myself fortunately on the long end of the 32-28 Kitten-ball score.

Sunday, May 12—How joyful my Sunday school group did look today upon finding themselves promoted to higher duties. Reminiscences of my own fond boyhood did appear.

Monday, May 13—What? More elections! Do feel an experienced politician feeling come over me. Albert have seen no baby kissing done, owing to the shortage of infants on the campus. Cigars would be more in demand. My secret ambition has always been to burn one from Dean Fritz.

Tuesday, May 14—Did forget to send my good sister a birthday card, and telepathy still around the corner! What fortune the dearest sister and breddren did make in convo this a.m. Methinks such harmony between a senior and two freshmen is worthy of recognition.

Wednesday, May 15—A fugitive from Ripley on the campus! John Baermann did tell a couple of rather strong ones, albeit I did trust that the good coach knew his oments and that they were what melted.

Thursday, May 16—Did spend an evil night with a rebellious stomach, but shouts of outly this early a.m. quelled and revolt. Bright sunshine and blue skies did throw out my professors, and we did collaborate in flying out date successfully. This evening did sincerely regret my athletic inaptitude which may be a result of my love for my good bedpans. Said regrets were due to my failure to share in the beautiful gifts won by professors and students in said athletics.

Friday, May 17—Did recuperate from spring outing and meditate on last night's courting. The morning did dawn bright and clear as one red and sunburned face after another shone about the campus.

Saturday, May 18—Do intend to spend the day giving thanks that another Trumpet issue is finally on the press. Will remember home this p.m. via the hitch hike route to make up for aforesaid loss sustained on Senior Day. So, Dear Diary, I hope E. J. will take over for one final issue next time. Methinks I am a pretty poor substitute.

PETERSEN HURLS WARTBURG NINE TO PENN VICTORY

Quakers Beaten 5 to 2 in Senior Day Clash.

Victorious over the Penn Quakers the second time this season, the Wartburg Knights, behind the steady five-hit pitching of Marvin Petersen, clouted the ball for a three-run in an Iowa conference baseball game played on the Wartburg diamond as a part of the college annual Senior Day festivities May 6.

"Marv" Has Control
Petersen assumed control of the game from the start and never was in trouble especially after his teammates spotted a lead in three hits. Emmerson singled, Dillon, hurling for the Quakers, allowed many made by Schafer, freshman fielder, in four tries at the plate.

Knights Open Scoring—
The Knights opened the scoring in the second inning with three runs in three hits. Emmerson was hit by a pitched ball. Schafer came through with a double to score Emmerson and himself when the left fielder threw the ball against a post of the bleachers. Reimler and Hohn also singled and proceeded to steal second and third from where he scored on Petersen's blunder. Langhals and Staibbrook struck out for the outs of the inning.

Again in the fourth inning, the Knights scored when Petersen reached base on an error, advanced to second when Staibbrook yielded, stole third and crossed the plate on a sacrifice hit by Hohn. The other Knight tally came in the sixth inning when Schafer singled, reached second on an infield out and was brought home by Staibbrook's timely hit.

The only Penn scores came in the third inning when Kiestler was hit by a pitched ball and scored home in Reimler hit the only home run of the game.

RIVALRY

Knights to Meet
Peacocks May 21.

Rivalry, colorful enough to satisfy the whetted desires of local sports fans, may be seen on the Wartburg municipal field May 21 when the victorious Wartburg Knights take the baseball diamond in opposition to their arch rivals, the Upper Iowa Peacocks.

This Iowa conference game will be the second meeting of the two teams this year. The first game ended in disaster for the Knights when the Peacocks emerged from a six-run, one-hit tie to win 10-1. That result should make the game all the more competitive.

Wartburg will be trying to get a 500 standing in the conference. They have previously won two out of five games. The Peacocks, having won five of their first games, will be attempting to keep a clean slate and emerge with another conference championship.

KNIGHTS FALL UNDER PEACOCK POWER, 10-1

Upper Iowa Knights Petersen Out of Box in Sixth.

The Upper Iowa Peacocks proved too much for Marv Petersen, young right-hander from Rockwell, Iowa and played him out of the box in the sixth inning of the ball game between the Peacocks and the Wartburg Knights at Fayetteville, May 14. They collected eight hits and six runs off him before Emmerson came in to put out the five. Emmerson later yielded three hits and three runs to the Peacocks.

Knights Get Three Hits—
Wartburg collected only three scattered singles, and started the scoring in the fourth inning, then proceeded to first hit by the pitcher. He went down to second on a sacrifice, and scored on Emmerson's single. The other singles were collected by Innen, in his third trip to the plate, and Kappmeyer. The Peacocks' garnered three two-base hits and two home runs among their bevy of eleven hits.

For five innings Petersen matched Evans, the Peacock hurler, pitch for pitch, but weakened in the sixth when he was taken out and replaced first base the rest of the game, Kappmeyer going to third base, and Emmerson taking over the pitching chores. Petersen struck out six opposing batters, Emmerson fanned one, and Evans kept 10 Knights to the bench via the strike-out route. The box score follows:

ADIEU—

Yes, ladies and gentlemen, much to your relief and mine, this is undoubtedly the last time that Sir Roland will write a column under the above title. This is the postponed farewell I spoke of in the last issue. It has been a pleasure to write this column for the Trumpet and I am sorry that four years have rolled around so fast that it is imperative for your scribe to give way to a better man. Four years of college newspaper work have given me uncounted benefits and much needed experience. It has been the policy of this department to give you all the sports news that has happened and an accurate account of news that is to come, and we feel sure that the next Sports Editor will continue the same policy. We offer the new editor our heartiest congratulations and assure him of our continued support even though it be in spirit.

STOP

A lot has been said of late about the privileges of American youth and how fortunate we are, but the daily headlines scream at us of war and bloodshed and the chances are it won't be long before that hated pestilence strikes us. Have you ever stopped to think how fortunate we are: that we can put a bat on our shoulders and swing it instead of a rifle; that we can throw a baseball, softball, or horseshoe instead of hand grenades; that we can wear a catcher's mask or uniform, and wear everyday clothes instead of gas masks; that we can have physical training instead of military drilling? Have you ever stopped to consider those things? If not, it will pay to reflect a little.

CHATTER

These "Outly" days are great things and should probably even come often, but please don't ever try to write a column like this after the day's festivities—and especially after "Strange Cargo"—wow! ! !

An interesting fact gleaned from the files of old Trumpets brings to light the record of eight straight wins over Penn college in basketball. Incidentally, eight games is all that we have played in the last four years. That old post on north field came in very handy on Senior Day, much to the delight of the Wartburgers when the Penn leftfielder played catch with himself by bouncing the ball off of the pole and allowing Schafer to score a freak home run. . . . Marv really pitched great ball and it would have been much closer game if Penn would have used the first catcher. . . .

Some of the boys came back from the Upper Iowa game with the report that Upper Iowa counted Wartburg its stiffest opposition in ten games. Of course they may say that to all of the teams but when you know that they beat Loras college 20 to 0, and Drake University 21 to 6, you begin to think a little more of that statement. . . . The future of Heist and Hohn to advance in the Iowa Conference tennis tournament at Dubuque last week emphasizes again, I think, the fact that Iowa Conference competition is naturally too stiff for Wartburg. Both Heist and Hohn are good tennis players. . . . Just this little bit of advice in closing. If you want to see a good baseball game Tuesday afternoon, go to the city field and watch the Knights versus the Upper Iowa Peacocks. . . . And thus I resign my position in favor of my successor and the Sports Department becomes even better. So long, everybody!

Schafer: earned runs, Upper Iowa 4-1; runs batted in, Buell 3, Harkins 2, Adams 2; home runs, Buell 1, Harkins 2; two base hits, Evans, Adams; Spatcher: stolen bases, 2; Evans, Baird; double plays, Buell 1, Adams 2 in 2-13 innings; Evans 10, Petersen 6, Emmons 11 hits, off Petersen, 6 in 5-13 innings; passed ball, Petersen; wild pitch, Emmons; hit by pitcher, by Emmons (Hohn); lost pitcher, Petersen. Umpire, Hugh Hines. Six matches to win one set in the six matches played. Following is the outcome of the matches:

Petersen (D) defeated M. Heist (W) 6-2, 6-3.
Knausz (D) defeated Hohn (W) 6-1, 6-1.
Conzett (D) defeated E. Heist (W) 6-1, 6-3.
Edwards (D) defeated Lagomarcino (W) 6-0, 6-0.
Petersen and Knausz (D) defeated M. Heist and E. Heist (W) 6-1, 6-3.
Conzett and Edwards (D) defeated Lagomarcino and Hohn (W) 6-1, 6-3.

KNIGHT NETMEN DEFEATED AGAIN BY DUBUQUE, 6-0

Fail to Win a Set From Invaders in Six Matches.

The University of Dubuque's conference championship tennis team took Wartburg's aggregation for the second time this year on the home courts yesterday afternoon, May 17, 6-0. There was no stopping those champions from Dubuque with their deadly and very powerful games. Wartburg's team couldn't even come close, failing to win one set in the six matches played. Following is the outcome of the matches:

Petersen (D) defeated M. Heist (W) 6-2, 6-3.
Knausz (D) defeated Hohn (W)

DUBUQUE TEAMS TRIM WARTBURG RACKETEERS, 6-0

The powerful University of Dubuque tennis team, who swept both singles and doubles titles in the conference tournament, defeated the Wartburg netters at Dubuque on May 3. Our boys failed to win a match in the six matches played. Petersen, this year's singles champion in the Iowa conference, defeated Captain Marty Heist in a real battle. The score of the set was 6-4, 6-4. Petersen and Knausz, the doubles champions of the conference, defeated the brothers Heist in one of the doubles matches, 6-4, 6-4. These two scores indicated that Wartburg is not far behind the champions in playing ability. The other two members of the Wartburg team were Jim Miersen and Virgil Lagomarcino, who both lost to their much too powerful foes. Following is the complete scoring of the six matches played:

Singles
Petersen (D) defeated M. Heist (W) 6-4, 6-4.
Conzett (D) defeated Lagomarcino (W) 6-1, 6-2.
Knausz (D) defeated E. Heist (W) 6-0, 6-0.
Edwards (D) defeated Miersen (W) 6-1, 6-0.
Doubles
Petersen and Knausz (D) defeated Heist and Heist (W) 6-1, 6-4.
Conzett and Edwards (D) defeated Miersen and Lagomarcino (W) 6-1, 6-3.
